Former Gov. Nathan McMillen, after a visit to New York, declared the Empire State is slipping away from Roosevelt and that with the nomination of a good conservative man the Democrats should carry it at the next presidential election.

John Allgood, the negro rural route carrier at Galatin, Tenn., who claimed to have been held up and warned to abandon his position, yesterday sent his resignation to Postmaster General Payne on the ground that continuance in the service would endanger his life.

The Court of Appeals yesterday affirmed the judgment of the Fayette Circuit Court in the case of Whitney and O'Brien, the youthful murderers of A. B. Chinn. The date originally set for their execution was February 13th, and Gov. Beckham will have to name a new date for the execution.

Gov. Beckham says he has not yet issued an order for the movement of troops to Breathitt county. It is believed, however, that troops will be sent not later than Sunday. Company C at Lexington, and the Peak Guards of Shelbyville, have been ordered to assemble at their respective armories at 7 o'clock Saturday evening in readiness for active duty.

Business is paralyzed in the Jewish commercial houses. Secretary of State Hay was yesterday a contributor of $200 to the relief fund being raised in New York for the victims of the Kishinev massacre.

The promotion of over 3,000 post-offices throughout the country were cancelled yesterday by Postmaster General Payne. In the classification of clerks in the several grades covered by first-class offices the number of clerks is prescribed by law. The classification made by George W. Beavers, recently resigned, authorized 7,412 promotions, and it has been found necessary to cut this number almost in half. The Court of Appeals yesterday affirmed the decision of the Breathitt Circuit Court in the contested election case of Terry against Hargis and Callahan. The case is one of several in which the contestants were represented by the late James B. Marcum.

An unknown man is said to have made an attempt last Friday to bribe the jailer at Winchester to poison Cuffie Jeff. The man is believed to have come from Jackson. A warrant issued for Jeff by Magistrate Edwards, of Jackson, was received yesterday at Winchester, but Circuit Judge Benton allowed Jailer Boone until June 1 to file his response to the motion of Jeff's attorneys that the prisoner be returned over to the Breathitt county Jail.

Judge Benton overruled the motion of Jeff's attorneys for a dismissal of the habeas corpus proceedings.

MAY 25.

In spite of a circular issued from St. Petersburg by Minister of the Interior Von Plehve, the Jews of Bessarabia have armed themselves in self-defense. This measure alone is said to be responsible for a failure of repression of the Kishinev horror.

The business session of the Confederate Veterans' Association was held Thursday, resulting in the reelection of all the former officers. It was reported that $57,000 had been subscribed for the monument to Jefferson Davis. The amount desired is $75,000. The next reunion will be held in Louisville, Nashville or St. Louis.

Maximum Gorki, the novelist, in an arrangement of the Russians for the atrocities at Kishinev, declares that men of culture led the mob. Russian official reports on the massacre are contradicted by photographs of scenes in the unfortunate city on the ill-fated April 20. Ambassador Cassini and Secretary of State Hay are both the recipients of many letters from cranks bearing upon the Jewish massacre.

The Court of Appeals yesterday granted the rule requiring Circuit Judge Cantrill to vacate the bench in the case of Caleb Powers. The opinion by Judge Hobson holds that the former court decision is binding on Judge Cantrill and on the present Court of Appeals. It will devolve upon Gov. Beckham to appoint a special Judge to try the case. Judge Benton, of Winchester, has been frequently mentioned in connection with the appointment.

Gov. Beckham and Assistant Adjutant General Haly issued orders yesterday afternoon for the movement of troops to Jackson. One hundred militiamen will be sent, under command of Col. H. D. Williams, of Lexington. The Louisville batteries will furnish forty of these men and Company C, of Lexington, and the Shelbyville company will supply the remainder, thirty each. The soldiers left Lexington today on a special train over the Lexington and Eastern railroad. Upon arrival they will report to Circuit Judge Redwine for service during the special term of court beginning Monday.

Tornadoes and rainstorms caused widespread disaster in Oklahoma Territory, Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, and Minnesota. A number of lives have been lost and scores of persons were injured. The property loss is heavy.

It is reported that the Republican State Convention to be held in Louisville in July will be called upon to endorse President Roosevelt in a resolution similar to the one Senator Foraker is expected to introduce in the Ohio State Convention.

Senator Hanna went on record yesterday as opposed to Senator Foraker's proposed resolution endorsing President Roosevelt for the next nomination in the State convention to be held in June. Mr. Hanna said the convention of 1904 should not be deprived of its own prerogative in this respect. He also reiterated his statement that he is not an aspirant for presidential honors.

The American Society of Equity will issue a bulletin requesting farmers to hold their wheat for $1 on the Chicago market. This is the first attempt of the organization to secure united action for the purpose of securing increased values for farm products.

Washington is somewhat stirred up over the report that Senator Hanna will try to prevent the endorsement of President Roosevelt in the Ohio Republican convention. It is believed that Senator Foraker will introduce such a resolution, and it is also believed that it will be readily adopted despite Senator Foraker.

A battalion of the State militia under Col. Williams and Major Allen, Second Infantry, reached Jackson yesterday and all is in readiness for the opening of the special term of the Breathitt Circuit Court today. It is reported that Sheriff Callahan is to be sworn of his office and power and an ellor appointed. The widow of James B. Marcum may frustrate the plans of the Commonwealth by refusing to let her witnesses testify for fear that their lives will be sacrificed when the militia leaves, but Judge Redwine has given assurance that they will be given ample protection. Mrs. Marcum has issued a sensational card attacking County Judge Hargis for the abandonment of justice in Breathitt county.

Here is a little four-barreled conundrum that is entertaining some of our exchanges: What character is there in the Bible who possessed no name, who suffered death in different form from any inflicted before or since that time, a portion of whose shroud is in every household, and the cause of whose death has been made famous by a modern author.

Why, that's dead easy. It's Lot's wife. She possesses no name; no one else met death through being turned into a pillar of salt; salt is in every household, Edward Bellamy wrote "Looking Backward."

FOR FREE ADVICE

Every Woman Should Write Dr. S. B. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium.

Mrs. Joseph Lacelle, Ottawa, East, Ont., Canada, writes: "Peruna is better by far than any other medicine sold in the Dominion for the troubles peculiar to the sex. I suffered with backache, headache and dragging down pains for over nine months, and nothing relieved me a particle until I took Peruna. A few bottles relieved me of my miserable half-dead, half-alive condition. I am now in good health and have neither ache or pain, nor have I had any for the past year. If every suffering woman would take Peruna they would soon know its value and never be without it."—Mrs. Joseph Lacelle.

Free Home Advice.

Only One.

Just before we die, says a Western editor, we want all whom we have pleased in the publication of this paper to give us a little statement to that effect. If the list is a respectable one, we will take it with us and when St. Peter meets us with a "Who are you sir?" we will hand him the list and proudly say—

"I am the editor who pleased everybody."

Then good St. Peter will say—"Come in; come right in. You will have to occupy the parlor until we can prepare special quarters for you. You are the first of that class who has applied for admission. I will soon have things in shape. In the meantime, I will leave an order for a special harp and a crown with an extra row of jewels. How is my old friend—er—well, I can't think of any friend in your town, but how are they? You don't know how glad I am to see you. Sit down again."
